DECLARATION OF STEVEN E. ADKINS

I, Steven E. Adkins, declare:

1. I am a partner at the law firm of Shaw Pittman, LLP, 1650 Tysons Blvd., 14th Floor, McLean, Virginia 22102, counsel for defendants ACCO Brands, Inc., American Covers, Inc. and Velo Enterprises, Co., Ltd. ("Velo"). I have first hand knowledge of the matters contained herein, and they are true and correct.
2. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of a letter I sent to Mr. Goggin, counsel for 3M Company and 3M Innovative Properties Company (collectively, "3M") on May 3, 2004.

3. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 is a true and correct copy of a letter sent by Mr. MacLean, an attorney at the law firm of Shaw Pittman LLP, to Mr. Goggin on May 10, 2004.

4. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3 is a true and correct copy of a letter sent by Mr. Goggin to Mr. MacLean on May 13, 2004.

5. Attached hereto as Exhibits 4 through 10 are true and correct copies of the introductory pages of the depositions of Hong-wen Yan, Hui-lu Chuang, Tsen-fu Hung, Tsai-yun ("Stella") Yu, Yifen Kao, and Kuang-hui Wu, all of which were taken by counsel for 3M in Taipei, Taiwan from November 12 through 16, 2001. These depositions were taken as part of discovery in the United States International Trade Commission ("ITC") investigation styled as In the Matter of Certain Gel-Filled Wrist Rests and Products Containing Same, Inv. No. 337-TA-456 ("ITC Litigation").

6. The ITC Litigation involved largely the same products and parties at issue in the case now before this Court. Attached hereto as Exhibit 11 is a true and correct copy of the docket sheet from the ITC Litigation demonstrating that there was never any motion to compel discovery or motion for sanctions filed with the ITC in that case by 3M. The parties were able to resolve all discovery disputes amicably without the ITC's involvement.

7. During the deposition of Stella Yu ("Ms. Yu") for the ITC Litigation, 3M's counsel examined Ms. Yu about chemical components of Velo's gel product. When Ms. Yu attempted to consult her notes, 3M's counsel demanded that I turn them over on the table so that Ms. Yu could not see them. I attempted to resolve the dispute by asking for clarification as to whether Ms. Yu was being examined in her personal capacity, or in her capacity as a Rule 30(b)(6) designee for Velo. I also agreed to allow 3M's counsel to use the notes as a deposition exhibit.

They were included in the deposition transcript as Exhibit 150. The matter was resolved when 3M's counsel eventually stated that the deposition was in Ms. Yu's personal capacity.

8. Attached hereto as Exhibit 12 is a true and correct copy of pages from 3M's website, www.3m.com, including 3M International Operations Facts and 3M's web page on its 3M Taiwan operations, last visited on May 26, 2004.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct and that this declaration was signed at McLean, Virginia on May 27, 2004.

3M Company, et al. v. Velo Enterprise Co., Ltd., Civil No. 02-4891
(JRT/AJB)

Dear Matt:

I write in response to your letter of last Friday evening concerning scheduling of the depositions of Velo and Ms. Yu. While I am loathe to engage in unproductive and distracting letter writing, I must respond to your letter that purports to represent the tortured history of our discussions concerning this matter and which is likely to be attached to your moving papers.

First, as you must know, I never agreed to have the depositions take place in Minneapolis. I suggested only that Ms. Yu may be available for deposition in the United States if she happened to be here for business travel already. At your request, I have inquired about Ms. Yu's travel schedule several times and she has advised me that she has no plans to be in the United States (for business or otherwise) during May or June of this year.

Several weeks ago, when we last discussed this, you indicated that 3M would serve a revised Notice of Deposition on Velo. While we were still awaiting that revised notice, last week, you called and abruptly announced that 3M was going to file a motion to seek to have the Court compel Ms. Yu and Velo's witnesses to travel to the United States for deposition. Once again, I offered to check with Ms. Yu to see whether her schedule had changed. I also telephoned you Thursday evening and reminded you that 3M had indicated it would be serving a revised notice of deposition of Velo, but that we still had only the notice that had been served in December of last year. You quickly prepared a revised notice and sent it to me by facsimile that evening. Finally, your comment that neither I nor Velo plans to attend the depositions regardless of when you schedule them is incorrect. The question is where you schedule them.

I have checked again regarding Ms. Yu's travel plans. They have not changed. She is not scheduled to be in the United States during May or June. Furthermore, in response to 3M's Amended Notice of Deposition, Velo will designate at least three witnesses to give testimony on the various topics listed on the notice, subject to Velo's forthcoming objections. Like Ms. Yu, none of these witnesses plans to be in the United States during May or June.

As I have said to you repeatedly, Ms. Yu and other Velo witnesses will, as an accommodation to 3M, travel to Taipei in June, July or early August for deposition.

We encourage you to reconsider filing the motion to compel and agree to have the depositions take place in Taipei for the convenience of the witnesses.

Very truly yours,

Civil No. 01-607 (JRT/AJB) and 3M Co., et al. v. Velo Enterprise Co., Ltd., Civil no.
02-4891 (JRT/AJB)

Dear Matt:

I am writing to follow up on our telephone conversation earlier today and in response to 3M's Amended Notice of Deposition of Velo Enterprise Company Limited ("Velo Notice") and 3M's Third Amended Notice of Deposition of Stella Yu ("Yu Notice") in the referenced case.

As I told you by telephone, Ms. Stella Yu will testify as to topics 1 through 9 and 16 through 20 in Schedule A of the Velo Notice ("Schedule A"). Mr. Wu, Kuang-hui will testify as to topics 10 through 15 in Schedule A. Ms. Yu and Mr. Wu will be available for deposition in Taiwan during the months of June and July.

As to both the Velo Notice and the Yu Notice, Velo Enterprise objects to 3M's proposal to hold the depositions in Minneapolis, MN. As you know, there is a presumption that depositions of a defendant or a corporation will be held at that party's place of business. However, as a conciliation, we are willing to make Ms. Yu available for a deposition in San Francisco if you will agree to conduct Mr. Wu's deposition in Taiwan or by video teleconference. I believe this proposal will save both sides a great deal of time and expense.

With respect to the Velo Notice, we raise the following objections:

Generally, Velo Enterprise objects to all of the categories in the Amended Notice to the extent they are unduly burdensome, oppressive, and seek information that is neither relevant nor likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

Velo Enterprise specifically objects to topics 15, 16, 17, and 19 in Schedule A insofar as it requests communications protected by the attorney-client privilege or the attorney work product doctrine. Velo Enterprise specifically objects to topic 20 in Schedule A insofar as it requests communications protected by the attorney-client privilege, the common interest or the attorney work product doctrine.

Dear Mr. MacLean:

I am writing in response to your letter of May 10, 2004, concerning the depositions of Stella Yu and Velo. We reject your offer to resolve 3M's pending motion by making available Stella Yu but not Velo's other witnesses, for deposition in San Francisco. As you know, our notices call for depositions in Minnesota. While we would seriously consider an offer to make Ms. Yu and all Velo's witness available for deposition in San Francisco, we will not accept an offer that requires us to depose some witnesses here and others in Taiwan. Please let me know if you are willing to make all the witnesses available for depositions in this country to take place in the next month.

Sincerely,
